FBC Men's Fellowship Gathering:

Building your life on a strong foundation

Men helping men grow in faith

First Baptist Men's Fellowship invites you for a relaxing weekend of fun and good conversation.

We will be staying at Grotonwood Camp's Prescott Lodge, a beautiful new facility that was dedicated this past April featuring fine hotel quality rooms with private bath.

The food is fantastic and includes dinner on Friday evening and three meals on Saturday.

Program: Building your life on a strong foundation

We have two presentations by members of FBC on 'foundational values' that guide their personal, family and professional life.

With our presenters we will reflect on a variety of questions: What are the values that provide a foundation for your life? Where did those values come from? Who were/are your mentors? How do you mentor others?

Devotional: John DeNardo, a new member of FBC and an accomplished guitarist, will join Kent Harrop in leading a devotional that will empower and inspire.

Q&A

When? Check in to your room at 3 p.m. Friday to enjoy the camp facility. Dinner is at 6 p.m. Program begins at 7:30 p.m. (Some will be coming from work so Friday dinner is optional.) Saturday includes three meals. Program concludes Saturday at 7 p.m.

Cost? None! The cost for one night and four meals is covered by a generous donation by a foundation administered by FBC's own Jack Alves. Thanks Jack! (Take advantage of this generous opportunity!)

Who? Open to all men who call FBC home and their friends. We also encourage men to bring sons and grandsons twelve and older to participate. Boys learn how to be men by being around positive role models.

Time to relax? Yes! There is plenty of down time reserved for hiking the camp, canoeing, board games, volleyball, basketball, cards, horseshoes, or taking a nap.
