First Sunday After The Epiphany: During this season in the life of the Church, we, like the Magi, look for signs of the Christ in our midst. And, as with the Magi, we, too, are invited to bring our struggles; questions; and, ultimately, our gratitude and lay it all before the Christ.

Genesis 1: 1 - 5; Mark 1: 4-11

What a Zoom Fellowship!

We are the people who have walked in a great darkness, and we keep moving forward because we have seen a star. The light of that star provides just enough light for us to keep moving forward with courage. In these wintry days, we need God's light more than ever before. We shine that light for each other.

Join us each Sunday morning around 10:55 am on Zoom for a virtual Sunday morning fellowship hour. Come as you are. Whether you are a long-time member or you are passing through, it will be our pleasure to welcome you. Children and pets are most welcome to come say hello, and of course, you can wear your PJs! See you on Sunday mornings.

Scenes from January 3rd's Epiphany Sunday School Supply Crate pick-up/hands-on activity event!

It was a chilly morning, but making Epiphany stars to decorate the front of our sanctuary is the best kind of heart-warming activity!

An Invitation to contribute to this year's Lenten Devotional

We invite you to contribute to this year's Lenten devotional by sharing original poetry, song lyrics, prose (400-word limit), or visual art. As you consider your submission, please reflect on the following questions:

"As you reflect on the challenges of the past year, where have you found sweetness? How have you experienced God's steadfast love even in the midst of your grief? How will you carry what you have learned in the past year with you in the days, months, and years to come?"

We will include reflections received by Wednesday, February 3 in the printed version of the devotional. However, we will continue to share your reflections online throughout the Lenten season, so send continue to send them even after the deadline. Share your reflections via email to the church office by emailing phaight@fbcbeverly.org.

Please contact one of the ministers if you have any questions about how to contribute.
