First Baptist Church in Beverly

Welcome to Worship at First Baptist Church in Beverly!

We welcome you to worship this morning. We are so pleased to gather with you! Please feel free to fill out one of our Here We Gather or prayer cards in the pew rack or to speak with Julie Flowers or Daniel Johnson following the service.

There are Prayer Request cards in the pew rack in front of you. If you would like to take a moment to fill one out with a prayer concern you would like shared or like the ministers to know, please do so, and then place it in the offering plate when they are passed. Prayer concerns that should be kept for ministers only should have that designation written on them.

The chancel flowers this morning are given in celebration of Music Sunday and of those who bring the music to us by The Church Family.

Prayground news for children! We encourage children in Grade 1 and above to make use of the Prayground space at the front of the room while they worship. The prayground is a child-friendly place for the quiet enjoyment of worship. Child Care for children Kindergarten age and younger is provided throughout our service, in the Littlest Learners room on the main level, located through the double doors at the front of the sanctuary. Our Childcare Coordinator, who also regularly staffs the room, is Abby Johnstone, an alum of our Youth Fellowship program, and preschool teacher at Glen Urquhart School in Beverly. Abby will be assisted weekly by a rotating team of outstanding young people from our Youth Fellowship program. All adults who work with our children have been CORI-checked. We always encourage families and caregivers to do what is best for their child and their family during the worship time. We do hope that older youth (above grade 5) will participate in worship; a new youth class will be forming for them in the coming weeks at a time separate from worship.

Devices to aid with hearing are available for those who have a need. A Deacon will be happy to assist you and provide one.

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom, the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

 Glory be to God and to the Christ and to the Holy Ghost; as it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen.

I Offer You Peace

I offer you peace. I offer you love. I offer you friendship. I see your beauty. I hear your need. I feel your feelings. My wisdom flows from the Highest Source. I salute that Source in you. Let us work together for unity and love ... an eye for an eye leaves the whole world blind.

These words are attributed to Mahatma Gandhi (1869-1948), a pioneer of non-violent civil disobedience as political protest, Mohandas Karamchand Gandhi was the leader of the Indian nationalist struggle for independence. A thinker and prolific writer on the concept of non-violence, he was assassinated in Delhi on January 30, 1948.

Peace Begins With a Smile

Peace begins with a smile. If we have no peace, it is because we have forgotten that we belong to each other.

Mother Teresa (1910-1997) founded the Missionaries of Charity in 1950. In recognition of her dedication to helping the poor and sick she was awarded the Nobel Prize

Karl Jenkins

Every valley shall be exalted, every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain. And the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together.

Isaiah 40:4-5

That was his dream. He had a dream.

Born in 1929, Martin Luther King Jr. was an American clergyman who played a major role in the African-American civil rights movement, using methods of peaceful protest inspired by the teachings of Mahatma Gandhi. In 1964, aged just 35, he became the youngest person to be awarded the Nobel Prize for Peace. He was shot dead in Memphis, Tennessee, on April 4, 1968 and is remembered today as an icon in the campaign for civil rights, both in the United States and worldwide.

Anthem: Peace, Triumphant Peace

Peace, triumphant peace shall reign on Earth some day. Pray for peace and make your words echo round the world for peace one day, on Earth one day, that wondrous day when the world has peace, glorious peace, such peace. When will such lasting peace arrive on that wondrous day on this our Earth? May all our paths meet up and lead to one holy place where peace shall reign in our hearts, one wondrous day when the world has peace, glorious peace, such peace.

Carol Barratt

How wonderful it is that no-one need wait a single moment before starting to improve the world.

Anne Frank (1929-1945), born in Frankfurt, was a Jewish victim of Nazi persecution. Following the German occupation of the Netherlands her family went into hiding in a secret annex at her father's office in Amsterdam. After two years they were betrayed. She kept a diary of this period which has been translated into more than 55 languages. Anne Frank died of typhus in the Bergen-Belsen concentration camp.

Embrace the spirit of peace and thousands of souls around you will be saved.

St. Seraphim of Sarov (1759-1833), became a monk of the Russian Orthodox Church at the age of 19. He lived as a hermit and received thousands of pilgrims. He was renowned for his ascetic life, his wisdom, gifts of healing and powers of prophecy.

Anthems

If I Could But Dream

If I could but dream ev'ry day would be the first day of spring, ev'ry heart would have a new song to sing and we'd sing of the joy ev'ry morning would bring. If I could but dream ev'ry one would be as free as a bird, ev'ry voice would be a voice to be heard. Take my word we would treasure each day that occurred. My world would be a beautiful place, where we would weave such wonderful dreams. My world would wear a smile on its face like the man in the moon has when the moon beams. If I could but dream ev'ry one would say the world was his friend, there'd be happiness that no one could end, no, my friend, not if I could but dream. Ev'ry head would be held up high, there'd be sunshine in ev'ry one's sky, if the day ever dawned when I could but dream.

I'll Make the Difference

I'm the one who can make the difference, yes, I will make the difference; against all odds I can live to share my love with others. Yes, I will make the difference, I can make it! Take my hand as we make this journey across the land. I'm the one who can make the difference, yes, I will make the difference; against all odds I can live to share my love with others. Yes, I will make the difference, take my hand as we make the journey across the land. I had the courage to keep goin' on. I had the faith when all hope was gone. I had the strength to keep holding on. I can make the difference, yes I can! 'Cause I'm the difference, I can make the difference, yes I can! 'Cause I'm the one who can make the difference, yes, we will make the difference; against all odds, we can live to share our love with others. Yes, we will make the difference, we can make it! Take my hand as we make this journey across the land. Take my hand!
